

Financial Research Workshop, IIM Calcutta

Date: 7-8 November, 2014

Financial Research and Trading Laboratory (in short, Finance Lab) of Indian Institute of Management Calcutta (IIMC) will conduct a 2 day Financial Research Workshop during November 7-8 of 2014.

Background

In 2011, the Finance Lab at IIMC received a substantial amount of financial support from the Ministry of Finance, Government of India to conduct research in finance. This workshop is one of the many initiatives that is being started to support and encourage high quality research in finance by IIMC. The workshop will bring together reputed academics from all over the world and provide a venue to present and discuss research in various areas of finance. The workshop is a vehicle for presentation of work in progress. The same event took place during 16-17 November, 2012.

Those attending the workshop will get an opportunity to disseminate their scholarly work and interact with the eminent scholars and the brightest minds in the field. The paper presenters will also have the opportunity to interact with the editors/associate editors of reputed journals in finance.

Academics, including faculty, research scholars, and doctoral students, can benefit from attending this conference.

Submission details:

Six unpublished research papers that relate to contemporary issues in the broad areas of corporate finance, financial markets and corporate governance will be accepted for presentation at this workshop. Only full paper submissions will be accepted. All submissions will be subject to rigorous review process and will be assigned a discussant. Complete papers (no abstracts) sent by 31 July 2014 will be reviewed for presentation. All submissions (in PDF or word format) should be sent to asstmgr_finlab@iimcal.ac.in
